

DIVINE SAVIOR CATHOLIC SCHOOL EARNS NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Divine Savior School has been chosen by the National Catholic Educational Association as a 2020 recipient of the “Lead- Learn- Proclaim Award.” The award presentation will be made in Baltimore, Maryland on April 14. The school was chosen for the award for meeting criteria in each of the three areas.

In leadership, the school exercises responsible decision-making, realizes and implements its mission, works collaboratively toward continuous school improvement, models service to others within the community, demonstrates faithful stewardship of resources, engages in responsible financial planning, and contributes to long-term planning for continuous improvement to realize the mission of Catholic education.

In the area of learning, the school supports a rigorous academic program that integrates the faith across subject areas, collaborates to achieve continuous improvement of instructional practice, creatively engages and motivates others to meet the needs of all students, and demonstrates commitment to personal improvement through professional development and ongoing faith formation, and guides students in 21st century skills including technology integration.

In the area of proclamation, the school embraces Catholic identity, demonstrates Gospel values, contributes to student faith formation, and is active in liturgical and communal prayer and service.
